Intro

C6 | C6 | G | G x2

Verse 1 (SETH)

C6 I've been hanging out with the rejects in the attic G
C6 Can't get out of my head the way you left G
C6 I got a sense of belonging but what does it matter G
Am And winter's on its way here to collect G

Verse 2 (SCOTT)

C6 I was born on the outskirts of a dream Gmaj7
C6 Daddy was a miner of almost anything Gmaj7
Am I've been busting stones, too proud to go back home C
Am Admit that all my digging was in vain D7

Chorus (SETH)

But don't we talk different than we did? C G
Am I more quiet, well, than I've been? C G
And don't you look brighter than the moon? C G
Don't I look different without you? Am G
Well, don't I look different without you? Am C G

Verse 3 (SETH)

C6 I'm taking rain like an Appaloosa's hoofprint Gmaj7
C6 and you know I'm drinking sunlight all day long Gmaj7
C6 I'm opened up just like a dogwood flower Gmaj7
Am And winter's on its way here to collect G

Chorus (SETH)

But don't we talk different than we did?
Am I more quiet, well, than I've been?
And don't you look brighter than the moon?
Don't I look different without you?
Well, don't I look different?

C6 I had a been a miner of almost everything Gmaj7
Am Now I stopped busting stone, I'll have to go back home C
Am Admit that all my digging was in vain D7

Chorus (SETH)

But don't we talk different than we did?
Am I more quiet, well, than I've been?
And don't you look brighter than the moon?
Don't I look different without you?
Well, don't I look differ-----ent?

Outro (SCOTT)

Am Winter's on its way here to collect G (Well, don't I look? Well, don't I look?)
Am Winter's on its way here to collect G (Well, don't I look? Now, don't I look?)
Am Winter's on its way here to collect G (Well, don't I look? Well, don't I look?)
Am Winter's on its way here to collect G (Well, don't I look? Now, don't I look?)
Am Winter's on its way here without you G
Am Winter's on its way here without you G
